Study of South's Problems.

Nashville, Tenn., May 7.—Several hundred delegates representing sixteen Southern states, all men of earnest thought and devoted to the best interests of their country, assembled in Nashville today for a southern sociological conference. Governor Hooper of Tennessee issued the call for the gathering and stated the object to be the study and discussion of numerous social problems peculiar to the South. During the several days that the sessions will continue attention will be given to every form of social endeavor—charity, correction, religion, fraternal organizations, the press, libraries, schools and public health. Many well known speakers, including the governors of several states, have accepted invitations to address the gathering.

APACHES MAY BE RETURNED TO ARIZONA

Washington, May 6.—The House committee on Indian affairs today decided to report favorably the Ferris bill for the liberation of the Apache prisoners at Fort Sill, Ok.

The bill gives the 300 remnants and descendants of the old Geronimo and Neches band of Apaches the choice to remain on the Fort Sill reservation or take up eighty-acre allotments out of the Kiowa lands near Lawton, or settle down on the Mescalero reservation in New Mexico.

The bill provides for an appropriation of $100,000 for the removal of Mescalero if that course is selected by the Indians. The Apaches themselves have on three occasions voted to go on the Mescalero reservation.

INDEPENDENCE FOR THE PHILIPPINES

JONES BILL GIVING ISLANDS INDEPENDENCE IN 1912 REPORTED FAVORABLY.

Washington, D. C., May 7.—If the plans of Chairman Jones, of the house committee on Insular affairs, are carried through, the Filipinos will enjoy complete independence by 1912. The majority and minority reports on Mr. Jones' independence bill have just been submitted to congress, the majority favoring the bill and the minority opposing it. The minority report is signed by all the republican members of the insular affairs committee and was written by Representative Olmstead. The republicans in congress and President Taft and his administration are bitterly opposed to giving independence to the Filipinos.

The bill as drafted by Mr. Jones with the aid of Philippine Resident Commissioners Legarda and Quezon provides for a limited independence for the islands beginning with 1913 and continuing until 1921, when it is proposed to turn the government of the islands over to the Filipinos permanently.

During the eight years of limited independence the Filipinos are to have a government patterned after that of the United States with a president, a senate, and a house of representatives. The president, however, is to be appointed by the president of the United States until the granting of complete independence in 1921 when he will be elected by popular vote. The president of the United States will have full veto power over all acts of the Philippine government during the eight years of limited independence.

Mr. Jones bases his arguments in favor of granting the Filipinos independence mainly on the fact that the Filipinos today are not the "ignorant and illiterate" people they are commonly supposed to be. He points out the fact that they have enjoyed the advantages of a school system since early Spanish times and that the enrollment during the last school year was about 600,000. He also shows that some of the highest executive and administrative offices of the Philippine government are held by Filipinos who have proven themselves to be men of high character and unquestioned executive ability.

Mr. Jones proves by figures that the Moros, the most troublesome of all the Philippine tribes constitute only about 4 per cent of the total population, and that the population of the islands as a whole is more homogeneous than that of the United States. He dwells on this point owing to the fact that the opponents of Philippine independence have claimed that internal dissensions and bloody domestic wars would immediately follow the granting of independence.

According to the majority report there is now an almost unanimous demand for independence in the islands. The two great Philippine parties, the Nacionalistas and Progressives are both in accord on that question.

The fact that the Filipinos have had more than ten years of practical self-government in their provinces and towns is also pointed out, as is the fact that in this way the people have been educated in the principles and methods of self-government.

The minority report consists mainly of extracts from the speeches of former President Roosevelt, President Taft, and ex-secretary of War Dickinson, in which independence is promised to the Filipinos but no definite date set for its establishment. It is evident that the Taft administration and the republicans are opposed to granting independence to the Filipinos.

Speaking in support of the Friar Land bill on the floor of the house a few days ago, Manuel Quezon, Resident Commissioner from the Philippines said, "It would not be revealing a state secret when I say that General Edwards, chief of the bureau of Insular Affairs, has repeatedly made statements to his friends to the effect that the United States government never had the intention of letting go of the Philippine Islands."

Mr. Quezon was heartily applauded, and it was evident that the sentiment of the democratic house is strongly in favor of the Jones Bill. Its fate in the senate however, is doubtful, although Mr. Jones says he expects his bill to pass that body. Taft will veto it in any event, judging from his past attitude on the subject.

STATE TAX LEAGUE IS THE CATSPA

THE POVERTY OF THE RICH

A Great Joke With Many Jokers.

The Citizens' Protective League is the Joke.

The Legislature, the State Officers, a $3,500,000 Capitol Building and $200,000 in Cash Are the Jokers.

A Story of Throbbing Human Interest, Depicting the Extreme Poverty of the Mighty Rich. Eleven of the Wealthiest Men in the State With Only $1,750 Cash—When the Assessor Came Around.

(*The headlines above and article following in exact replica is reproduced from the Tonkawa Chieftain.)

Some time ago a Mr. Gloyd, vice president of this non-partisan, non-sectarian, non-taxpaying league, visited Kay county for the purpose, so he stated, of educating the people on the science of government and on the physical phenomena of neurons of the cerebral hemisphere under certain non-political conditions, or words to that effect. Anyway, Kay county taxpayers were not hypnotized nor bamboozled and his scheme did not work. After he read the constitution and by-laws, which provided for the payment of from $1 to $20 each into the league, with all officers and directors in Oklahoma City, Kay county proceeded to organize a protective league of its own. The Chieftain, in reporting the meeting, intimated that perhaps these great philanthropists (?) were not out spending their time and money in the interest of the dear people; that they were not buying pages of advertising in the Oklahoma for the benefit of the people of Kay county or any other county; but that they had some ulterior motive in their aggressive and state-wide campaign, and that if the people would look deeply into it they could find the joker. Whereupon that great "big" Oklahoma pounced upon this "little," insignificant Chieftain and gave it an unmerciful trouncing for even intimating that anything rotten could emanate from Oklahoma City, and especially from these honest patriots who were spending their time and money in the interest of the poor, tax-ridden people of Kay county, whom they considered incompetent and unfit to take care of themselves.

But the editor of the Chieftain was not convinced of his error by the "forceful" argument and volcanic explosions of the Oklahoma, so he took his cane in hand, shoved a biscuit in his pocket and slid down to Oklahoma City to investigate the character and habits of the officers and directors of this state-wide (?), non-partisan (?), non-sectarian (?), non-taxpaying aggregation, for the Good Book says, "By their fruits ye shall know them."

That old adage, "There were giants in those days," was appropriate in ages past when honesty dwelt in the souls of men, but as times have changed it would be more nearly correct to say "There are jokes in these days."

The Chieftain has called attention in past editions to one Aiken, who filed a bill last week for the destruction of fourteen state schools, and who preached much about high taxes; and yet his name is not found on the tax rolls of Cleveland county. That is a joke. We are called upon to witness J. C. Monett, acting president of the state university and dean of the law school, as he denounces our state educational system, and, by his misstatements reveals his ignorance, which the Chieftain proved beyond a shadow of a doubt and made it so warm for the dean that he came forward with the worn-out explanation that the stenographer erred. That's another joke.

And just recently we have been amused by one Dr. A. C. Scott, "the eloquent gentleman, the polished orator, the noted educator" and a friend of the Aiken bill, who rejects a portion of Holy Writ and who believes that the monkey is his grandpa. That's no joke.

Yes, there are jokes in this day and many of them, but the biggest joke, the most colossal joke, to our mind, is this corporation with headquarters and other quarters in Oklahoma City.

The literature which this association is scattering over the state and which is doing the state more harm than all its drouths and pestilences, by keeping away thousands of good people, shows the officers and directors of this association to be as follows: C. F. Colcord, president; S. M. Gloyd, vice president; O. P. Workman, secretary; E. H. Cooke, treasurer, and Joseph Huckins, George G. Sohlberg, Leon Levy, John W. Shartel, J. M. Owens and J. M. Bass, directors.

The circular letter which they are sending over the state reads: "As a taxpayer have you not felt the burden of taxation for 1911? Do you want continued for 1912, 1913, 1914, etc., these conditions? If you do not, a remedy is proposed. We are forming an organization of one hundred thousand taxpayers in the state who stand for reform by limiting the amount that can be taxed, etc."

Now, dear reader, we want to call your attention to the officials of the organization who ask you if you have "felt the burden of excessive taxation," and see if these officials have felt the burden of excessive taxation. If so they are surely in a position to sympathize with you, for "misery loves company."

We will first call your attention to C. F. Colcord, president of the league. Here is C. F. Colcord's personal tax assessment, copied from the records of Oklahoma county:

Automobiles $3,000
Diamonds and jewelry 150
Office furniture 40
Money 440
Mortgages 1,600
Piano none

Now, old horny-handed farmer, note that C. F. Colcord has no gold nor silverware, has no piano, has no household goods, has only $40 for office furniture, and the old woden desk in our office cost nearly that much, and to think that the poor man has only $150 worth of jewelry in his home. Do you know how poor C. F. Colcord is? His estimated wealth is only $400,000. No wonder the poor man has no household furniture, no wonder his office furniture is only worth $40. No wonder he feels the burden of "excessive taxation."

And now, dear reader, at the top of the letter head we find "O. P. Workman, secretary." Workman is one of the most active men in the organization. He believes thoroughly in the reduction of taxes. It is his religion. He is only worth $200,000, according to Dun and Bradstreet, and to convince you, dear reader, that he is conscientiously opposed to taxation, his name does not appear on the tax roll as having any personal property whatever. Do you not sympathize with O. P. Workman with only $200,000, in his efforts to lift the burden of taxation from the dear people, from the backs of the groaning taxpayers and from his own, when his names does not appear as having any personal property whatever. He and Aiken are in the same boat, both patriotic citizens are loudly crying high taxes.

Now, Mr. Kay County Farmer, who refused to be led into the spider's parlor by this scheming bunch of real estate boosters, let us look for a moment at E. H. Cooke, the treasurer of the "Non-Partisan Citizens' Protective Association of Oklahoma," and also president of the State National Bank, as his letter head indicates. From our earliest childhood we have sympathized with the national bankers. They are probably the most down-trodden people on the face of the earth. When we turn to the tax records of Oklahoma county we learn, to our amazement, that E. H. Cooke's name does not appear on the tax rolls as paying any personal taxes, and while we are weeping over the poverty of this poor man, this same E. H. Cooke, treasurer of the taxpayers' league and president of the State National Bank, we find that he is rated at $250,000, we feel something like the little boy the calf ran over—we just have nothing to say. Sometime when you are in Oklahoma City, Mr. Honest Citizen, drive out to 415 North Hudson and view E. H. Cooke's handsome mansion, and then after that think that this poor man has no household goods, no piano, no easy chair, no mahogany, no silverware, no diamonds, not even a finger ring, and no watch. Why, it is enough to cause the tears to flow from the eyes of the most hardened criminal. Yes, sir, E. H. Cooke is opposed to taxation, and he is treasurer of a league that has for its slogan the reduction of taxes.

Now, let us notice for a moment their board of directors. Take Geo. E. Sohlberg for instance. The following is a copy from the records of George E. Sohlberg's personal tax assessment:

Cattle $ 35
Automobile 500
Household goods 400
Piano 50
Diamonds 200
Mortgages 12,000
Money none

Now, the wealth of this particular patriotic citizen is estimated at $250,000. No wonder the poor man must use a $50 piano. No wonder his old dilapidated automobile is only worth $500. Certainly household goods valued at $400 are sufficient for a man whose estimated worth is only $250,000. And to think that Mrs. Sohlberg must be denied that which all women love with all their hearts—the luxury of diamonds—and can only afford $200 for precious stones. We sympathize with Mr. Sohlberg. He might buy more furniture on the installment plan, but he probably has a great horror for debt. He might also buy Mrs. Sohlberg a diamond on the same plan, and he might rent a better piano if taxes were not so high. No wonder he is one of the directors in the magnanimous movement to lift the burden of taxation from the shoulders of the man with the hoe.

Then, let us notice J. M. Owens for a moment. His property is estimated at $200,000. Only $200,000! And the records show his personal assessment as follows:

Automobile $800
Household goods 500
Piano 150
Gold and silver plate none
Diamonds 100
Billiard and pool tables 50
Money, notes and credits none

Now, we suggest that Mr. Owens sell that billiard and pool table and reinvest the $50 in gold and silverware. Friends of taxation will note that Mr. Owens's piano is worth three times as much as Mr. Sohlberg's. But then Mr. Sohlberg is estimated at $250,000 and Mr. Owens at only $200,000. But Mr. Sohlberg has just twice as much invested in diamonds as Mr. Owens has, and so we believe it is about an even break. However, Mr. Owens has no cow, and Mr. Sohlberg has one valued at $35. Poor cow!

OFFICER HARRIS READILY MAKES BOND FOR $10,000

Monday afternoon after the bond of L. O. Harris had been fixed at $10,000, it was a matter of an hour or less until the bond was signed and Harris free. Under the Oklahoma law the signers had to schedule property valued at double the amount of the bond, or $20,000, but this was no obstacle whatever.

It is stated that Mr. Harris will resume his place on the police force tonight.

The Texas Political Situation.

Although on the face of incomplete returns, Wilson seems to be within three votes of having a majority in the state convention, an unbiased view seems to indicate that a great deal depends on the action of the county conventions that will be held today. Harmon leaders are still claiming a majority and the matter must be fought out.

The republican situation is too badly muddled to form a definite conclusion. Both Taft and Roosevelt leaders are claiming the state, and the matter may possibly not be decided until the state convention is held.

Owen Withdraws BILL

Washington, May 6.—The bill introduced by Senator Owen with the purpose of adjusting land titles within the Five Civilized Tribes, after having been reported to the senate from the Indian affairs committee with the recommendation that it be passed, has, at the instigation of the Oklahoma senator, been returned to the committee and it will not be brought up again on the senate side for consideration at this session, so far as Senator Owen is concerned.

Owing, it is said, to a general misinterpretation of the provisions of the measure, and the methods which Senator Owen adopted to bring about a settlement of the troublesome land title suits, hundreds of petitions have been sent to the members of the Oklahoma delegation in congress, protesting against the measure.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place," is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle. Specil Agents, Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

CLARK AND TEDDY CARRY MARYLAND

Baltimore, Md., May 7.—Speaker Champ Clark and Theodore Roosevelt carried the Maryland primaries on the face of incomplete returns received up to 12:15 a. m. from all the counties in the state. The indicated vote was:

Republicans—Roosevelt 66, Taft 63.
Democrats—Clark 69, Wilson 33.
Harmon 4, uncertain 23.
Majority necessary to control the state convention 65.

After running second in the returns from today's state presidential preference primary, President Taft took a spurt in the count about 11 o'clock. With all of Baltimore in and but two counties missing, he then had 63 delegates to the state convention.

Col. Roosevelt, according to the count at that time, had 61.
Clark and Roosevelt leaped into the lead early with complete delegations from Baltimore city, which gave them each 28 delegates. Clark's preferential vote in the city was greater than that of Harmon and Wilson combined. He defeated Wilson by nearly 3 to 1 and the New Jersey governor was ahead of Harmon by 2 to 1.

The sweeping Clark success in Baltimore was a victory for the democratic organization.

In the republican primary here the Roosevelt organization downed the regular republican organization led by collector of the Port William F. Stone.

S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

If an old sore existed simply because the flesh was diseased at that particular spot, it would be an easy matter to apply some remedy directly to the place that would kill the germs; or the diseased flesh might be removed by a surgical operation and a cure effected. But the very fact that old sores resist every form of local or external treatment, and even return after being cut away, shows that back of them is a morbid cause which must be removed before a cure can result. Just as long as the pollution continues in the blood, the ulcer remains an open cesspool for the deposit of impurities which the circulation throws off. S.S.S. cures Old Sores by purifying the blood. It removes every trace of impurity and taint from the circulation, and thus completely does away with the cause. When S.S.S. has cleansed the blood, the sore begins to heal, and it is not a surface cure, but the healing process begins at the bottom; soon the discharge ceases, the inflammation leaves, and the place fills in with firm, healthy flesh. Under the purifying and tonic effects of S.S.S. the system is built up, and those whose health has been impaired by the drain and worry of an old sore will be doubly benefited by its use. KENNEDY GIVES A GOOD ROADS TALK

A. Kennedy, regarding the good roads movement, will say that I might mention the system of road construction in the sand beds in some sections in Texas, of how they had been clay faced with teams and scrapers partly by public subscription, and partly by farmers living along the routes where the road work was being carried on. These sand beds were known far and wide and was a source of great displeasure to anyone contemplating a trip through that bed and a heavy load canoe in section but of the state, but today the hard clay road has taken the place of the deep sand bed and a heavy load can be hauled over the roads with all ease. The methods employed in construction are simply this: A deep pit or tank is dug near as possible to the part of the road to be clayed, and from this pit the clay is taken by slip scrapers over a bridge or viaduct and dumped through a hole in the middle of the floor into wagons below which carry it out and deposit it in the middle of the road, where previously the top soil has been removed so as to allow the clay to be placed in such a position that it will not work away to the side by constant travel.

Of course when the clay roads are wet the sand roads on the side affords a good place for travel, and is as good as the clay road but when the sand is dry an inexperienced traveler does not have to be told to pull upon the clay surface. The operation of clay facing usually takes 7 teams with scrapers in the pit with two men loading, and one man on viaduct unloading, and from 8 to 10 wagons hauling clay, which is governed largely by the distance to be hauled. One pig with two teams is sufficient to keep everything on the move. About one mile per day can be constructed when everything runs smooth. The clay should be put on a thickness of 6 to 10 inches and about 7 feet wide, and after being constructed in this manner I have observed by watching the results that very little work is required in keeping up a road so constructed.

Now this plan is very satisfactory in sandy sections where the land is level and washes but very little, but in rolling sections where the grades are very steep of course other plans would be necessary. In Pontotoc County in the eastern part of Oklahoma the roads are steep, ranging in some instances from 10 to 20 per cent grades, and with the inexhaustible supply of rock in all this County, roads could be constructed on the Macadam plan that would enhance property value at least 10 or 15 per cent.

Then will follow as a natural result Rural Free Delivery which brings the farmers in closer touch with the outside world, and he in turn will tell his friends back in less favored sections about the wonderful resources where he lives, and the country will develop so rapidly that we will stop and wonder how it all came about. Briefly summing up we find that the man has been benefited more farmers own their homes and under conditions like these a real lasting contentment has been brought about in the city, and rural district as well, and others will profit by the example and all will be benefited who come in touch with the man who feeds us all "The man with the hoe". A. L. KENNEDY.

HOW JUDGE STUBBS GAVE AID

Philanthropic Act That Turned Out Well Really Had Its Root in Selfishness.

Judge George W. Stubbs was fond of telling a story about himself which illustrated, he said, that sometimes we hold out the helping hand to a less fortunate brother in the hope of benefiting ourselves.

"Shortly after I was married," he said, "I settled in Cincinnati and began the practice of law there. I had just established a comfortable, cozy home when I found we had a very annoying neighbor. On Sunday afternoons, when I expected to rest, this neighbor would, with his friends, become extremely boisterous. I decided that the man had neglected his education along certain lines. I also found, on investigation, that the troublesome neighbor was not employed, but was living on a few hundred dollars his wife had inherited.

"The neighbor who had aroused me to action was invited, with his wife, to spend a Sunday with us. At the dinner table the neighbor and his wife appeared uneasy. After dinner he and I talked things over, and finally the neighbor showed signs of awakening, and I suggested that he go to work. I obtained employment for him in a factory, but he soon gave up the factory job. Then I helped him to get several other positions, but he did not want to 'stick.' Then, as a last resort, I got him a place as a brakeman on the railroad. The man had found his calling in that work. He has 'stayed with it' ever since and is now general superintendent of a railroad system on the Pacific coast.

"He has visited me a number of times, and each time he has thanked me for what I did for him. He always said that I was responsible for his success. But you see I tried to help him in the hope that I might have a quiet Sunday afternoon."—Indianapolis News.

"LITTLE FATHER" ON PARADE

Tolstoy's Pen Picture of the Ruler of All the Russias Is by No Means Flattering.

Having dismissed Bibikov, Nicholas, with a sense of duty well fulfilled, stretched himself, glanced at the clock and went to get ready to go out. Having put on a uniform with epaulets, orders and a ribbon, he went out into the reception hall, where more than a hundred persons—men in uniforms and women in elegant low-necked dresses, all standing in the places assigned to them—awaited his arrival with agitation.

He came out to them with a lifeless look in his eyes, his chest expanded his stomach bulging out above and below its bandages, and feeling every body's gaze tremulously and anxiously fixed upon him, he assumed an even more triumphant air. When his eyes met those of people he knew remembering who was who, he stopped and addressed a few words to them, sometimes in Russian and sometimes in French, and transfixing them with his cold, glassy eye, listened to what they said.

Having received all the New Year congratulations, he passed on to church. God, through his servants, the priests, greeted and praised Nicholas just as worldly people did; and weary as he was of these greetings and praises, Nicholas duly accepted them. All this was as it should be because the welfare and happiness of the whole world depended on him; and though the matter worried him, he still did not refuse the universe his assistance.—From Tolstoy's "Hadji Murad."

Reconciliation.

Ben All Haggan is the man about whom one of the most delightful little painting romances was once told. It was in connection with his portrait of Mary Garden as Thais, which was exhibited in a Fifth Avenue window. There, the story goes, his grandfather, James J. B. Haggan, seeing the picture in the window, was so delighted with it that he wished to buy it immediately, and offered $10,000 for it, not knowing the artist was his own grandson, who had been spurned on account of his artistic tendencies. The offer was made through Miss Garden, and eventually raised to $25,000. Then the artist and the cruel grandfathers were reconciled on the spot, the artist meanwhile accepting the $25,000 check with a more-in-sorrow-than-in-anger expression. It was a very nice story, but there was only one trouble with it.—It was not true in any particular.

Martian Canal Doubles In Size.

Observations show that the Martian canal Titan has doubled within a few weeks. The canal runs nearly straight north from the gulf of the Titan across the equator and far into the northern hemisphere of the planet. A perfectly parallel line has now appeared to the east of it, the distance separating the twins being somewhat more than a hundred miles. This doubling of certain Martian canals at certain seasons is one of the proofs held to support the theory that the canals are of artificial construction.

Precocious Youth.

A teacher, discussing the wild animals to be found in the middle states, asked her pupils to name some of them. To her surprise one little fellow calmly suggested: "Lions and tigers." "But where are they to be found, Johnnie?" "In the menageries," was the quiet reply.

Notes From the Labor World.

The labor council of Stockton, Calif. has purchased a $50,000 site for a new labor temple.

Edmonton, Alta., is believed to be the first city to adopt the minimum wage as applicable to all municipal work and contracts.

The Canadian government proposes to restrict the working hours of the street railway men to six days of ten hours each day.

The Pittsburg Typographical Union is circulating a petition to repeal the new mortality law, which was adopted in November of last year.

The entire State of Illinois reports but 8,077 children under sixteen years at work. In all Ohio there are only 9,019 children regularly at work.

The total amount paid in sick, disability and death benefits by the Boot and Shoe Workers' International Union during the last year was about $90,000.

To assist the San Francisco, Calif., Labor Council in building a $250,000 labor temple, the Alaska Fishermen's Union will buy $5,000 worth of bonds.

At the labor exchanges in Germany 3,708,000 men and women operatives offered their services for sale in one year. Employers made 2,208,000 applications for employees.

That it should be illegal for a girl to marry unless she can produce official evidence of having done one year's household services, was the novel proposal at a recent session of the German Women's Congress.

The Pattern Makers' union has sent notices from headquarters in Cincinnati, O., that the referendum vote on the proposition to hold a convention of the league of Pattern Makers this year was defeated, but that the same question will be submitted to the subordinates next year.

The Riggers' and Stevedores' union, one of the oldest labor organizations in San Francisco, Calif., has at present a membership of 2,500 men, but it is the belief that upon the completion of the Panama Canal the membership of the union will eventually be increased to 5,000.

Definite steps toward the consolidation of all the union shoe workers in the country into one national body have been taken at Lynn, Mass. It is probable that a convention of delegates representing all the national and independent union, and all the Lynn unions will be called shortly to solve the question.

A new industrial conflict threatens London. The chorus girls, following the example of the miners, now demand a minimum wage. Their case is gallantly championed by the Amalgamated Musicians' Union. The girls demand a minimum salary of $7 for six evening performance, and one dollar for each matinee performance.

Labor's Memorial day, the fourth Sunday in May, will be observed to a greater extent this year than ever before. Heretofore the second Sunday in May has been officially designated Memorial day, but by a resolution adopted at the Atlanta convention of the American Federation of Labor, it was changed to the fourth Sunday in May.

So when we tell you that we have found the eczema remedy and that we stand back of it with the manufacturer's iron clad guarantee, backed by ourselves, you can depend upon it that we give our advice not in order to sell a few bottles of medicine to skin sufferers, but because we know how it will help our business if we help our patrons.

We keep in stock and sell all the well known skin remedies. But we will say this: If you are suffering from any kind of skin trouble, eczema, psoriasis, rash or tetter, we want you to try a full size bottle of D. D. D. Prescription. And, if it does not do the work, this bottle will cost you nothing. You alone to judge.

W. O. W. WILL HOLD COUNTY CONVENTION

Monday evening, the W. O. W. camp decided to hold a county convention at Ada sometime in August. As there are about twenty-one camps in the county it is expected that the attendance will be large and the occasion the biggest of its kind in the history of the county.

Assistant State Manager J. A. Edwards and District Deputy P. S. Reed attended the meeting Monday evening and made some interesting talks to the camp. They have launched a movement to organize a degree team and it bids fair to be a success.

CANDIDATES MAY BEGIN FILING NAMES TOMORROW

Wednesday, May 8, is the first day that candidates may file their applications to get on the ticket, and it is thought that many will be ready to file their names with the secretary of the board, A. R. Sugg, when the time arrives.

Parties who are candidates, or expect to become such, should file their names as such with the secretary of the election board not more than ninety days, nor less than thirty days before the primary election which will be held the sixth day of August next.

Candidates may file commencing with the eighth day of May and at any time thereafter up to and including the sixth day of July. It will be well for all candidates to remember this—Wednesday, May 8, will be the first day upon which names are to be filed.

All names must be filed with A. R. Sugg, secretary of the county election board.
